

Warranty Guidelines

Any warranties for products sold by Wine Enthusiast are provided solely by the product manufacturer. Wine Enthusiast makes no express warranties of any kind and disclaims any implied warranties, including the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose and the implied warranty of merchantability. Wine Enthusiast has no liability to any person or entity with respect to any liability, loss or damage, including actual, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damage, caused directly or indirectly by the use or performance of any product sold by Wine Enthusiast. Rights may vary from state to state. Wine Enthusiast is not responsible for wine damaged due to product malfunction. For more information contact your insurance company.

Items that have been discontinued that qualify for replacement under warranty terms will be replaced by a model of equal or lesser value that is as similar to the original defective unit as possible as deemed by Wine Enthusiast. In the event a single unit needs replacement that was marketed and purchased along with a second unit as a double unit, and said model has been discontinued, the defective unit will be replaced by a model of equal or lesser value that is as similar to the original defective unit as possible as deemed by Wine Enthusiast. This may result in the replacement unit not identically matching the original unit, in which case the customer will be offered a discount as determined acceptable by Wine Enthusiast to purchase the new matching unit to complete the double unit.
