

X-LARGE COUNTERTOP CONVECTION OVEN

The Chefman ultra-convenient toaster oven features convection technology for faster, more thorough cooking. The unit's spacious interior can hold up to six slices of bread at a time or a 12-inch pizza, while its easy to use settings makes it simple to set the temperature from 150° to 450° F. Choose from a variety of cooking functions including bake, broil, toast and pizza. A 30-minute timer with automatic shut-off and a bell signal provides added convenience. Other highlights include cool-touch handles, and double-wall construction for enhanced cooking performance and heat retention. Accessories include a durable baking pan and one removable/reversible chrome-plated cooking rack and a removable crumb tray.
