Guaranteed Performer: Storm System products are guaranteed to perform satisfactorily when applied in accordance with label directions. If a Storm System product is shown to be defective, replacement of the Storm System product will be made upon presentation of proof of purchase. Manufacturer's liability, whether expressed or implied, is limited solely to the replacement of the Storm System product and does not include labor or application costs incurred by failure of previously applied paint films or inappropriate application procedures.