Terms & Conditions

The panel will be manufactured and cut by Columbia Forest Products, to the dimensions specified. Cut to Size panels are Non-Refundable, and any left over material from the cutting operation will be discarded. Shipment from the cutting operation normally occurs 3-5 business days from date of order.

This form functions separately from the Home Depot website, and will be submitted to Columbia Forest Products for matching with your Home Depot order and fulfillment. Please continue with your order on the Home Depot website to finalize payment.

To ensure an accurate order, please fill out all fields on this form before clicking the Submit button. Clicking Submit acknowledges agreement to the above terms. A "select email client" window may appear. Options depend on how your email is configured:

1) Email Application: If your computer has an email app installed, select "Default email application" or "desktop email application". The form will automatically be attached to an email message addressed to hdcts@cfpwood.com. Send the email.

2) Web Browser Email: If you use a web browser to send/receive email, select "internet email" or "other". This may save the PDF file to a folder of your choice. Use your web browser email to create a message to hdcts@cfpwood.com, attach the PDF, send the email.

If the Submit button results in no action, save this PDF, attach it to an email to hdcts@cfpwood.com, send the email.
