SKU 1004356552 OMSID 309626241 UPC 754001007581

HAZARD: When using the lathe to its full capacity it is found that the faceplates and tool rest holders have the potential to fracture under the excessive force from heavy turning, posing an injury hazard due to projectiles that can strike the user and bystanders, and a laceration hazard to the user who could come into direct contact with the cutting tool. Consumers should immediately stop using the machines until you receive replacement parts and instructions sent by Grizzly Industrial. Grizzly is contacting all known purchasers directly to notify them of this recall.
